

Azmi & Associates has been awarded yet again with the Employer of Choice Award for Malaysian legal market for year 2016. This is the Firm's seventh consecutive year winning the award since 2010. It was quoted that an associate from the Firm commented that Azmi & Associates provides "challenging tasks and endless opportunity, as long as I'm willing to learn". Other winners of the award include Tay & Partners, Wong & Partners and Zul Rafique & Partners.

Asian Legal Business ("ALB") publishes the full result of Employer of Choice 2016 in its April 2016 issue. The ALB Employer of Choice Rankings were compiled taking into account responses from more than 3,500 law firms employees across Asia, ranging from managing partners to paralegals, as well as ALB's own market knowledge.

The survey was open in the months of February and March, and law firms have been ranked on the basis of job satisfaction, remuneration , work-life balance, career prospect, mentorship, job security and other aspects, with respondents being asked to submit their inputs/responses anonymously to help maintain fairness and objectivity. With the conferment of this award for the seventh year to the Firm, and together with the support from its valued employees, the Firm is more determined to strive towards becoming an outstanding employer in the legal industry, not only in the Malaysian legal market but also on an international level.
